

Subject: Requesting for Organizing Solidarity March for Palestinians

Respected Administration,

I hope this proposal finds you well. On the behalf of all the members of SIPL society, I'm writing to propose the organization of a Solidarity March for Palestinians on our campus.

As students of Political Science and International Relations, we are well aware of the complex and interconnected nature of global issues, and the role that universities play in fostering understanding, dialogue, and action on matters of international importance. With this in mind, we are writing to propose the organization of a Solidarity March for Palestinians on our campus.

Background:

The Israeli-Palestinian conflict remains one of the most highlighted and intractable conflicts in the world right now, with far-reaching implications for regional stability, human rights, and international security. As future diplomats, analysts, and policymakers, it is essential for us to engage with this issue and spread awareness in our university.

Objectives: The Solidarity March aims to achieve the following objectives:

1. Raise awareness among students and faculty members about the ongoing humanitarian crisis in the Palestinian territories and the complexities of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.
2. Foster solidarity with the Palestinian people and advocate for their rights to self-determination, dignity, and freedom from occupation and oppression.
3. Explore the role of international actors, including governments, intergovernmental organizations, and civil society, in promoting peace, justice, and reconciliation about this matter.

The Solidarity March will provide students of International Relations with a valuable opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge to real-world issues and engage in meaningful dialogue and activism. It will enhance our understanding of conflict resolution, peacebuilding, and diplomacy by analyzing the Israeli-Palestinian conflict from diverse perspectives and exploring potential pathways to peace and justice. By organizing and participating in the Solidarity March, we demonstrate our commitment to becoming informed, engaged, and responsible global citizens who are actively working towards a more just and peaceful world.

Event Details:

- Title: Solidarity March for Palestinians

- Date: 22 May 2024

- Venue: GIFT University

- Activities: In addition to organizing the Solidarity March, we kindly request permission to raise the Palestinian flag in a prominent location, such as the university's front lawn, for the duration of the event. This symbolic gesture will serve to demonstrate our solidarity with the Palestinian people and our commitment to advocating for their rights and dignity.

We will coordinate with campus security and local authorities to ensure the safety and well-being of participants.

I believe that organizing a Solidarity March for Palestinians is a powerful way for our university to demonstrate its solidarity with oppressed communities and its commitment to justice and human rights. I kindly request your approval and support for this initiative, which I believe aligns with our university's mission and values.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I look forward to your response and the opportunity to work together in organizing this important event.

Kind Regards,
SIPL